The committee appointed by the trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church to ascertain the condition of the General Assembly? trustfunds, which were in the custody of Hipple as treasurer of the hourd of trustees, to-day made the following announcement:

"To the Presbyterian Church:

"Careful examination shows that the great bulk of the investments of the trustees, amounting to $53.00, is inner. The entire loss through the maffession of the late treasurer is not likely to exceed $50.00. The suspension of the Real Estate Trust Company has involved the deposit account of the trustees mounting to $19.00, the whole of which at the present time, it is housed, will be savell. The utmost caution that experience can suggest is being used to protect and preserve and the securities in the hands of the trustees."
